United States Attorney Deborah R. Gilg announced that Scott Zahradnik, 38, of Salina, Kansas, was sentenced in Lincoln on June 23, 2011, to 27 months in prison by United States District Judge Richard G. Kopf, for traveling from Kansas to Nebraska and failing to register as a sex offender as required by federal law. In addition to his prison term, Zahradnik will serve five years of supervised release following his release from prison.

Zahradnik was arrested by the Hastings Police Department on December 30, 2010, on a warrant from Kansas for failure to register as a sex offender in that state. Zahradnik was required to register as a sex offender following a conviction for Indecent Solicitation of a Minor in Kansas in 2004. Upon entering Nebraska, Zahradnik also failed to register in Nebraska as required by state and federal law.

This case was investigated by the Hastings Police Department and United States Marshal's Service..
